

SUMMARY

Goal oriented and results-driven leader with 23 years of experience of leadership, teamwork, and management in high-stress, results based, goal oriented environments. Proven leader of organizations and teams over a 23-year military career. Extensive background in strategic and operational planning; building and managing planning teams to solve multi-faceted complex problems; assisting high-level executives in developing, authoring, and communicating strategic vision statements; coordinating global multi-national logistics and capabilities; designing training programs from the ground up, all while operating and thriving in volatile, uncertain, complex, and ambiguous environments.

- Training

- Leadership and Teambuilding
- Strategic Planning

- Planning

- Crisis & Risk Management
- Project Management

- Executive level request

- Relationship Building
- Supply Chain Management

EDUCATION

School for Advanced Military Studies, Fort Leavenworth, KS

July 2013-May 2014

Master's of Military Operational Art and Science

Bold the degree and put it first

American Military University

January 2006-May 2008

Master's of Arts in Military Studies (Land Warfare)

United States Military Academy, West Point, NY

July 1994-June 1998

Bachelor's of Science in Systems Engineering

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1st Infantry Division, Fort Riley, Kansas

April 2016-Present

Commander, 5th Squadron, 4th Cavalry Regiment, 2nd Armored Brigade Combat Team

- Led over 570 soldiers in year-long training program to prepare unit's soldiers and equipment for deployment to Europe
- Led over 300 soldiers during a three-month deployment in Jordan, training and advising the Jordanian Armed Forces to secure their border with Syria
- Accountable for leadership, direction, and performance of all areas and commodities within organization to include personnel, operations, plans, training, supply, fleet maintenance, and communications

1st Infantry Division, Fort Riley, Kansas

May 2015-February 2016

Assistant Chief of Staff for Operational Plans

- Built and led planning teams for strategic and operational planning efforts to solve complex problems to including deployments, training exercises, and leader-development
- Responsible for the refinement and synchronization for community (Fort Riley and surrounding communities) Strategic Campaign Plan, leading senior executive-level (General Officer) working groups to develop vision statements and strategic plans
- Trained planning team members on planning and design methodologies to effectively develop and communicate operational plans for world-wide operational deployments

Assess Results that does not tell me what YOU?

Tell me about our

Can lead

Tell me

Squadron Commander - Fort Riley, KS

Why should I hire you? Have you any good at that job?

Combined Joint Forces Land Component-Iraq, Baghdad, Iraq

October 2014-April 2015

Deputy Operations Officer

- Coordinated operations with key U.S., Coalition and Iraqi military leaders and agencies to re-open military bases across Iraq which ones? Why? Result?
- Managed the Combined Joint Forces Land Component-Iraq daily and short-term operations across location in separate three different countries grammar
- Synchronized the operations and activities of contributing nations assist in rebuilding Iraq's military, to include briefing products for requests for information from the Vice President of the United States Next, tell me about one, give a result
- Represented military efforts in working groups with Department of State counterparts to include briefing the US Ambassador to Iraq Tell me about one

1st Brigade Combat Team, 10th Mountain Division, Fort Drum, New York

May 2012-May 2013

Brigade Operations Officer

- Responsible for all operations and training activities for a brigade of over 5,000 soldiers OK, were you good at it?
- Responsible for the design, training, planning, coordination, and deployment of entire team to Afghanistan as one of the US Army's first Advise, Assist, and Train Brigades across seven installations Tell me about your role and the result
- Responsible for synchronization of plans and operations for Brigade Combat Team and its six subordinate organizations with international partners in the conduct of all activities with Afghan Security Forces Civilians won't grasp the complications of synching plans for a BCT. Tell me about one and the result

1st Brigade Combat Team, 10th Mountain Division, Fort Drum, New York

May 2011-May 2012

Squadron Executive Officer

- Second in command for a cavalry squadron of over 500 Soldiers, organized with a headquarters and five subordinate organizations
- Responsible as the Chief of Staff with oversight of all personnel, supply, intelligence, operations, and training activities
- Responsible for the maintenance activities for over 5,000 pieces of equipment in the squadron, to include fleet management of over 100 vehicles, and the result?

Responsible to ensure & tell you the work done

SOCIETIES / MEMBERSHIPS

- Armor and Cavalry Association 1998
- Knights of Columbus 2003
- 1st Cavalry Association 2004
- Society of the 1st Infantry Division 2015
- Association of the United States Army 2015

If you are out of space, THIS goes first

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION

- Advanced Military Studies Program July 2013-May 2014
- Command and General Staff College Intermediate Level Education January 2009-December 2009
- Armor Maneuver Captain's Career Course May 2002-September 2002
- Armor Officer's Basic Course July 1999-November 1999

maybe want of contributions instead? ...